Have you been convicted of a crime or offense of any kind?

Conviction(s) will not necessarily disqualify an applicant from employment. Factors such as age and time of the offense, seriousness and nature of the violations, and rehabilitation will be taken into account. Convictions that have been expunged, sealed, discharged, or otherwise cleared from your record do not have to be disclosed.

Applicants in California, Connecticut, must read the following before answering this question:

California: Do not disclose (1) a marijuana conviction that is more than two years old, (2) a misdemeanor conviction for which probation was successfully completed or discharged, and the case has been judicially dismissed under Penal Code Section 1203.4, or (3) any record regarding a pre- or post-trial diversion program.

Connecticut: Applicants do not need to disclose the existence of any conviction the records of which have been erased pursuant to Section 46b-146, 57-76o or 54-142a of the Connecticut General Statutes. Criminal records subject to erasure pursuant to these sections are records pertaining to the finding of delinquency or that a child was a member of a family with service needs, an adjudication of a youthful offender, a criminal charge that has been dismissed or nolled, a criminal charge for which the person has been found not guilty or a conviction for which the person has received an absolute pardon.

AUTHORIZATION- APPLICANT STATEMENT (PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING CAREFULLY)

I hereby affirm that the information on this application (and accompanying documents, if any) is true and complete to the best of my knowledge. I also agree that any misstatement, falsified information, or omission deemed significant by Party City may disqualify me from further consideration for employment and/or may be considered justification for discharge if discovered after an offer of employment has been extended to me. I understand that nothing in this application or any other Party City documentation, or an acceptance of employment, creates or is an employment contract between Party City and me, and that should I be hired, my employment would be for no fixed duration and could be terminated by me or Party City at any time with or without cause, reason or notice. I understand that no oral or written statement to the contrary shall change this relationship, or should be relied upon by me. If hired, as a condition of my employment, I agree to conform to the rules and regulations of Party City Retail Group, including but not those limited to those pertaining to confidentiality, conflict of interest, harassment, fraternization, conduct, health, safety and security. I authorize all persons, schools, companies, corporations and organizations named in this application (an accompanying documents, if any), to release any information concerning my background, and I hereby release them and Party City from any and all claims of liability in law and in equity that may arise out of the release and attainment of such information. I understand that this application for employment will only be considered for 120 days from the date it is submitted. Should I wish to be considered for employment beyond this time period, I must submit a new application.
